Instructions to use Greenstar simulator

1. Log into internet web site www. Stellarsupport.com
2. If the global web page comes up click on the Ag & Turf ling under United States
3. On left side click on Training
4. Click on Greenstar 2 2600
5. You now have the option to run from the internet or to download it to your computer
    a. I recommend downloading it, it will run faster and smoother
6. To run from internet click on I Agree button
    a. Skip down to step 29
7. To download to computer scroll to bottom of page and click on Download the GS2 system Demo
8. Click on Save
9. On the left side under Folders click on Desktop to highlight it
10. On right half of window right click with mouse
11. In list that pops up highlight New
12. In list that pops up click on Folder
13. Type in GS2 and press enter
14. Click Save
15. Wait for computer to download program, can take up to 10 minutes
16. When complete click on Open Folder
17. Double click on GS2Systemdemo
18. Click Browse
19. Find and click on the GS2 folder that was created
20. Click OK
21. Click Unzip
22. Click OK
23. Click Close
24. Double click on GS2 demo folder, there will be a date listed here also
25. In list of files find GS2systemdemo, click on and drag out of window and to your desktop
26. Close the window you drug the GS2systemdemo link from
27. Double click on GS2systemdemo
28. Click on I Agree
29. Choose the machine type, implement type, receiver and signal you want to simulate
30. Place check marks in the boxes below if you are using any of these items
31. Press Continue
32. Have fun and learn
33. To reset simply close the window and double click on GS2systemdemo

Gooseneck Implement

Gooseneck Implement